

2016 Website List $10,564,800

ISRAEL $3,162,250

A. NEW ISRAEL FUND (NIF)

www.nif.org

Building Civil Society/Social and Economic Justice

1. For general support of this organization, which advances democracy and equality in Israel through grantmaking, programs and public advocacy; and build awareness and worldwide support for these efforts. ($400,000)
2. For its Core Grants Program, which provides institution building grants to social change organizations working to strengthen democracy and promote social and economic justice in Israel. NIF used Moriah funds to fulfill its commitment to the Association for Civil Rights in Israel (ACRI), NIF's flagship grantee and Israel's leading human and civil rights organization. ($125,000)
3. For Shatil, which works to strengthens Israeli social-change organizations through a wide range of capacity-building services, revitalizes the field through leadership development and volunteer service programs, augments its effectiveness by facilitating and coordinating coalitions; and, where necessary and appropriate, mobilizes and leads the social-change sector in response to critical issues through proactive initiatives. ($100,000)
4. For Shatil's Shared Society Program, which seeks to create a critical mass of sustainable and positive shared society models in a wide variety of arenas – educational, social, corporate, public, cultural, recreational and others, which will address the need to build bridges over the existing walls of segregation and detachment, thereby transforming the circle of conflict and revenge into a circle of conciliation and partnership. ($40,000)
5. For its Public Advocacy program, which works to strengthen the capacity of NIF to defend itself and its grantee organizations; to position NIF to have a greater impact on Israeli society, and to build a broad and organized constituency for democratic values. ($175,000)
6. For its development operations including a more robust development operations including a more robust development team, upgraded regional professional leadership, leading to increased donor acquisitions. ($150,000)

7. For the NIF's Los Angeles office to significantly expand its resource development capacity in this region. ($75,000)
8. For its digital organizing initiative, "Zazim" which aims to harness digital advocacy to mobilize activists across a range of progressive issues including advancing peace with Palestinians. ($62,500)
9. For ASSAF-Aid Organization for Refugees and Asylum Seekers for its efforts to promote socio-economic rights for refugees and asylum seekers. ($30,000)
10. For its Norway funding pool to provide funding support for organizations advancing human rights in the West Bank and Jerusalem whose funding support from the Norwegian Embassy was terminated in 2016 without advance warning. ($50,000)
11. For its SLAPP funding pool to be used to provide legal advice and assistance to organizations that have been the target of libel suits in response to statements that are critical of government policies or of NGOs promoting pro-settlement or anti-democratic policies. ($25,000)
12. For The Whistle, a project challenging bias and misinformation in the media through media monitoring. ($62,500)
13. For the Association for Civil Rights in Israel (ACRI) for general support. ($115,000)
14. For its NIF-D Initiative to Reclaim National Security, and specifically for Mitvim, a progressive foreign policy think tank that aims to reshape Israel's relations in the Middle East, Europe and the Mediterranean. ($75,000)
15. For ANU, which strives to strengthen Israel's democracy, advance socio-economic issues, and diversify the public discourse, through public participation, media and digital activism ($50,000) and for its Promised Podcast project, which produces an ongoing English language podcast series on Israel. ($20,000)
16. For Bimkom: Planners for Planning Rights, for its efforts to bring about system-wide change in planning policies and practices affecting the lives of residents in Israel, Area C of the West Bank, and East Jerusalem. ($40,000)
17. For Breaking the Silence (BTS), which collects, verifies, edits and publishes soldiers' testimonies about their service in the Occupied Territories to raise awareness and educate Israelis about the nature and reality of the Occupation. ($30,000)
18. For the Hotline for Refugees and Migrant Workers to safeguard the rights of asylum seekers. ($65,000)

19. For Ir Amim, for its efforts to shape policy to meet the needs of Jews and Arabs sharing Jerusalem, and to minimize the damage caused by unilateral actions such as Jewish settlement in East Jerusalem and government policies that erode the option of a negotiated two-state future. ($50,000)

20. For Merchavim – The Institute for the Advancement of Shared Citizenship in Israel for its project, Arab Teacher Integration, which supports and ensures the success of the Ministry of Education’s plan to integrate 500 Arab teachers in Jewish schools. $25,000)

21. For MOLAD: The Center for the Renewal of Israeli Democracy, a progressive think tank. ($100,000)

22. For Yod Bet Cheshvan for the Tag Meir-Light Tag Coalition to raise public awareness and media attention about religiously based racism and efforts by the religious right to undermine democracy. ($25,000)

23. For Palestinian Society Program, which provides grants to organizations working to promote civic equality for the Palestinian minority in Israel while shifting attitudes toward a broader embrace of a shared society. ($125,000)

24. For the Israel Religious Action Center in order to conduct a public and legal campaign that will result in a decision by the State Attorney General to prosecute the leaders of the extreme right wing organization Lehava, leading to their ouster from Israel’s public sphere. ($20,000)

Equal Rights and Opportunities for Palestinian Citizens of Israel

For Sikkuy: The Association for the Advancement of Civic Equality, which promotes equality in government policies and budget allocations for Arab citizens of Israel. ($100,000)

Empowering and Improving Living Conditions for Ethiopian Immigrants

Fidel: The Association for Education and Social Integration for Ethiopian Jews in Israel, which works to strengthen and expand its mediation, empowerment and advocacy services to the Ethiopian community. ($120,000)

The Israel Center for Educational Innovation to raise literacy achievements in schools with concentrations of Ethiopian and other disadvantaged students ($450,000) and for its Whole School Improvement Program. ($50,000)

The Israel Association for Ethiopian Jewry, which advocates for changes in employment, education, and housing policies for Ethiopian Israelis. ($50,000)

Tebeka, a legal advocacy and aid organization serving Israel's Ethiopian Israeli community. ($40,000)

Promoting Human Rights in the Palestinian Authority Areas

Human Rights Defenders Funders to cover the cost of legal fees to human rights defenders subject to legal proceedings because of their human rights activities. ($40,000)

Yesh Din, which seeks to compel the State of Israel and its agencies to fulfill their duty under international humanitarian law to protect Palestinian residents of the West Bank. ($40,000)

Preserving Rights in the Palestinian Territories

B'tselem, which works to end the occupation in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip through increased legal, public and moral scrutiny of human rights violations committed by Israel's security personnel and settlers ($60,000); for an emergency assistance resulting from a catastrophic fire which destroyed its offices, and for upgrading its security systems ($30,000); and for a cultural event on February 5, 2016 in response to the recent attacks against cultural figures because of their association with human rights and anti-occupation NGOs. ($20,000)

NALA Foundation, for its pilot project in Adwa in Northern Ethiopia to test its approach to eradicating neglected tropical diseases in a new location and to develop a documented model that can be replicate. ($20,000)

B. Fostering Peace in the Middle East

Americans for Peace Now ($107,250) For general support of this organization, which seeks to educate and persuade the American public and its leadership to support and adopt policies that will lead to a comprehensive, durable, Israeli-Palestinian and Israeli-Arab peace, based on a two-state solution, guaranteeing both peoples security ($87,250) and for its grassroots peace movement, Shalom Achshav (Peace Now) ($20,000). www.peacenow.org

ECONOMIC JUSTICE $2,604,500

NATIONAL PROGRAMS

A. PUBLIC POLICY

Bend the Arc ($105,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which works to create a just, fair, and compassionate America by mobilizing the full array of Jewish resources – human, financial and moral-in partnership with other communities, to champion equality and justice for disenfranchised people ($30,000); (b) its Care Fund, which supports the work of the Caring Across Generations initiative to create and improve long-term care jobs ($70,000); and (c) for participation in Rockwood Leadership Institute ($5,000). www.bendthearc.us and www.caringacrossgenerations.org

Borealis Philanthropy ($35,000) For its capacity-building work with the Black-led Movement Fund, which embraces grassroots organizing as a core strategy to educate and mobilize people to address state violence and economic injustice in Black communities.

Center for Community Change ($187,000) For (a) its Human Rights Project for Girls, which works to make the lives of U.S. young women and girls a human rights priority ($60,000); and (b) for general support of this organization, which is undertaking a new long-term initiative to confront poverty in the United States, using a gender justice lens. ($127,000). www.communitychange.org and www.rights4girls.org

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities ($70,000) For its State Policy Fellowship Program, which recruits and places policy analysts from under-represented populations with State Priorities Partnership groups. www.cbpp.org

Demos ($50,000) For general support of this organization, a research, public policy, and advocacy organization that is dedicated to ensuring that our country lives up to the true meaning of democracy; a place where all Americans have an equal voice and an equal chance. www.demos.org

Ella Baker Center for Human Rights ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which works to advance racial and economic justice to ensure dignity and opportunity for low-income people and people of color. www.ellabakercenter.org

Family Values @ Work: A Multi-State Consortium ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to build a national movement for earned sick days and family and medical leave insurance and to raise the national visibility of these issues. www.familyvaluesatwork.org

Food Research and Action Center (FRAC) ($3,000) For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that the SNAP Program and key child nutrition programs better serve low-income families. www.frac.org

Institute for Policy Studies ($160,000) For (a) its New Economy Project, which focuses on providing support for new organizing models and advocating for shared prosperity ($50,000); (b) to build its fundraising capacity ($20,000); (c) for its Black Worker Initiative, which works with labor unions and German employers in the South to improve conditions for Black workers ($50,000); and (d) for its campaign to organize southern Black Domestic Workers, to develop their own policy agenda for improving working conditions and to support other economic and racial justice campaigns ($40,000). www.ips-dc.org

Leadership Conference Education Fund ($50,000) For its Judicial Vacancies project, which educates the public on the importance of ensuring the U.S. Supreme Court nomination process be followed according to the provisions established in the U.S. Constitution. www.civilrights.org

National Immigrant Law Center ($5,000) For its Long-Term Campaign to Achieve Health Care for All project.

NNACP ($20,000) To pilot a new program to help state conferences and local branches become more active on workplace justice issues.

National Coalition on Black Civic Participation ($65,000) For general support of this organization, which convenes the Black Women's Roundtable that champions just and equitable public policies for Black women and girls ($50,000); and for its Black Voter Alliance 2016-2020 to share best practices, partnership and collaboration opportunities on a common commitment to increasing Black civic engagement ($15,000). www.ncbcp.org

National Domestic Workers Alliance ($50,000) For the We Belong Together coalition, which advocates for women's rights and well-being in immigration reform and provides organizing, training, and programming for both immigrant and/or women's rights groups involved in immigration reform.

National Employment Law Project ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which works to build economic opportunity for low income working families. www.nelp.org

National Partnership for Women and Families ($70,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes fairness in the workplace, access to quality and affordable health care, and policies that help parents meet the dual demands of work and family

($20,000); and for its campaign to help workers meet the dual demands of work and family by advancing workplace policy agendas at the federal, state and local levels ($50,000). www.nationalpartnership.org

Race Forward ($25,000) For its Workforce Development and Racial Equity Initiative, which addresses racial equity issues in its work, educates the field on why a racial equity lens is important to achieving its goals and provides tools for the field to address structural racism that creates occupational segregation. www.raceforward.org

Restaurant Opportunities Center United ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which is dedicated to improving restaurant employee's working conditions across the country. www.rocunited.org

US Action Education Fund ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which provides information, training, technical assistance and research to state, regional and national organizations promoting social, racial, economic and environmental justice. www.usactioneducationfund.org

REGIONAL PROGRAMS

A. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA PUBLIC POLICY

Academy of Hope ($50,000) For its Policy and Advocacy initiative, which focuses on improving policies and practices related to increasing adult literacy rates in the city. www.aohdc.org

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities ($160,000) For its D.C. Fiscal Policy Institute (DCFPI), which analyzes budget, tax, and programmatic issues affecting low-and moderate-income District families and individuals to assist policymakers, advocates, and the media. www.dcfpi.org

DC Appleseed ($65,000) For general support of this organization, which organizes volunteers, including attorneys and other experts, to work in teams to analyze and develop solutions to problems facing the city. www.dcappleseed.org

DC Employment Justice Center ($35,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which works to secure, protect, and promote workplace justice for low-income workers in DC. www.dcejc.org

DC Jobs With Justice ($98,000) For general support of this organization, which works to bring together labor, community, faith-based, and student organizations to build power for working families in Washington, DC ($50,000); for its DC Just Pay coalition, which advocates for worker justice policies in the city ($40,000); and for its capacity building and executive transition ($8,000). www.dcjwj.org

Food Research and Action Center (FRAC) ($30,000) For its DC Hunger Solutions project, which focuses on increasing the use of federal nutrition resources in the District. www.dchunger.org

Jews United for Justice ($90,000) For general support of this organization, which organizes a visible Jewish presence and takes action for economic and social justice in the Washington, DC area; including paid family leave. www.jufj.org

Many Languages, One Voice (MLOV) ($40,000) for its (a) Workers' Committee in support of worker justice policies including wage theft, paid family leave, increased minimum wage and fair scheduling ($20,000); and (b) for its Movement Matters Board Development project to recruit, train and place new board members with DC grassroots organizing and advocacy groups ($20,000).

Washington Area Women's Foundation ($22,000) For general support of this organization, which will launch its policy work in 2017. www.thewomensfoundation.org

Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless (WLCH) ($150,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which seeks to provide legal representation to, and advocacy on behalf of, people struggling with homelessness and poverty in the District of Columbia ($100,000); and (b) its Fair Budget Coalition, which brings together community members, service providers, and faith organizations to collaboratively and strategically advance a public policy agenda that responds compassionately and effectively to the needs of the poor in DC ($50,000). www.legalclinic.org and www.fairbudget.org

FAMILY INCOME

Community Foundation for the National Capital Region ($30,000) For its Greater Washington Workforce Development Collaborative, which invests in strategies to help low-income adults in the Metro DC area gain the skills they need to sustainable employment. www.cfncr.org

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

DC Alliance of Youth Advocates ($75,000) For general support of this organization, which works to ensure the availability of policies, programs, and practices within DC that promote and propel youth into productive and healthy adulthood. www.dc-aya.org

DC Lawyers for Youth ($5,000) For its challenge grant to attract and retain individual donors. www.dcly.org

Life Pieces to Masterpieces ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which provides academic support, art instruction, leadership development activities, and mentoring to boys and young men living in low-income and public housing east of the Anacostia river. www.lifepieces.org

HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Coalition for Nonprofit Housing and Economic Development ($85,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to preserve affordable housing for low and moderate-income District residents, and to revitalize distressed neighborhoods through its training, capacity-building, public education and communications components. www.cnhed.org

Empower DC ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to enhance and strengthen self-advocacy efforts to improve the quality of life for low- and moderate-income people in the District, specifically to preserve and create affordable housing and encourage civic engagement. www.empowerdc.org

Organizing Neighborhood Equity, DC (ONE DC) ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which works to create and preserve racial and economic equity in the District of Columbia. www.onedconline.org

EDUCATION

Advocates for Justice and Education, Inc. ($25,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which provides educational advocacy, support legal services, and training to at-risk students and their parents. www.aje-dc.org

B. MARYLAND PUBLIC POLICY

Job Opportunities Task Force ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to promote and develop policies and programs that increase the skills, job opportunities, and incomes of low-skill, low-income workers and job seekers in Maryland, including leading the campaign for a new sick days policy. www.jotf.org

C. VIRGINIA PUBLIC POLICY

Commonwealth Institute for Fiscal Policy ($135,000) For general support of this organization, which analyzes how policy, budget and tax proposals will affect low-income families and communities in Virginia. www.thecommonwealthinstitute.org

Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy ($65,000) For general support of this organization, an interfaith partnership focused on social and economic justice issues. www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org

New Virginia Majority Education Fund ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which is building a movement for a Virginia that is democratic, just and sustainable. www.vnm-educationfund.org

Virginia Organizing ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which provides policy analysis, training and technical assistance to low-income individuals and organizations around the state working for economic justice. www.virginia-organizing.org

D. OTHER

Mary's Center for Maternal and Child Care ($7,500) For general support of this organization, which provides low-income, immigrant families with health, education, and employment services. www.maryscenter.org

Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which provides comprehensive reproductive health services. www.ppmw.org

EDUCATION $1,230,300

American Ireland Fund ($10,000) For general support of this organization, which invests in high-quality education by supporting programs that widen access to and participation in third-level education for under-represented groups; providing access to integrated education in Northern Ireland, and supporting innovation and groundbreaking research.

Capital City Public Charter School ($1,000) For general support of this organization, which enables students to meet high expectations, develop creativity, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills, achieve a deep understanding of complex subjects, acquire a love of learning, along with a strong sense of community and character.

www.ccpcs.org

Chalkbeat ($150,000) For general support of this organization, which provides deep local coverage of education policy and practice that informs decisions and actions, leading to better outcomes for children. www.chalkbeat.org

College Track ($75,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which works with at-risk students from underserved communities across six cities to help them graduate from college ($50,000); and (b) for its College Track Denver ($25,000).

www.collegetrack.org

Education Reform Now ($100,000) For general support of this organization, which dedicates to creating an America in which every child, regardless of class or race, has the social and economic opportunities afforded by an excellent public education.

Fund for the City of New York ($52,800) Recommended for the Promise Project, which aims to provide effective, all-encompassing services for children with learning disorders in Harlem, the Bronx, and Washington Heights, while creating a model for effective evaluation and educational support for all underprivileged children with learning disorders ($50,000); and for its annual Gala event ($2,800) www.fcny.org;

www.promise-project.org

Future Is Now Schools ($25,000) For its project support to address the critical teacher shortage in California public schools that disproportionately impacts low income and minority students. www.finschools.org

Hebrew Public ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which creates a national movement of Hebrew charter schools that provide great K-8 public school education to diverse students, while teaching them Modern Hebrew ($15,000); and for

Harlem Hebrew Academy Charter School, which aims to provide a new model for effecting community change through education, diversity and civic involvement ($25,000). www.harlemhebrewcharter.org

The Gillen Brewer School ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which provides young children classified as having developmental, language, learning, health-related and emotional disabilities with an intensive 12-month school program that includes an academic curriculum, speech and occupational therapy, play therapy/counseling, music, art, science, technology and a sports and fitness program ($25,000) and; to launch the Measure of Academic Progress Assessment Tool ($10,000). www.gillenbrewer.com

Inner City-Inner Child ($2,500) For general support of this organization, which empowers educators to use arts to teach academic skills to low-income preschool children.

iMentor ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which builds mentoring relationships that empower first-generation students from low-income communities to graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their ambitions. www.imentor.org

Narrative4 ($64,000), For general support of this organization, which fosters empathy and understanding through storytelling and student exchanges in the United States, Israel, South Africa and Ireland. www.narrative4.com

New Classrooms Innovation Partners ($160,000) For general support of this organization, which aims to be the national leader in Next Generation Learning through its flagship product, Teach to One: Math. www.newclassrooms.org

New Leaders ($170,000) For its programs in Newark and New York City, which work to transform low-performing urban schools by increasing the number of high-performing principals with strong adult leadership skills to enable them to recruit, select, train and support high-quality teachers. www.newleaders.org

Oakland Public Education Fund ($55,000) For its Promise Documentation Project to be planned and produced by Loudspeaker Films.

Stephen Gaynor School ($100,000) For its scholarship program, which provides financial assistance to ensure that all students have an equal opportunity to access the school resources regardless of family income. www.stephengaynor.org

Success Academy Charter Schools ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which operates 34 schools with more than 11,000 students in underserved communities in Harlem, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens and the South Bronx. www.successacademies.org

TeachPlus ($25,000) For general support of his organization, which creates and runs programs which gives urban teachers the skills and pathways to effect both school-and system-level change. www.teachplus.org

The Aspen Institute ($10,000) For its Society of Fellows Program, which supports the unrestricted operations of the Aspen Institute.

The Brearley School ($20,000) For its minority scholarships.

Turnaround for Children ($100,000) For general support of this organization, which works directly with districts and their high-poverty low-performing schools to develop and implement strategies to confront the recurring challenges of poverty among students by addressing the extreme levels of stress they experience.

www.turnaroundusa.org

Wesleyan University ($25,000) For a current use scholarship that will fund approximately 50% of a need-blind student's four year career at the University.

www.wesleyan.edu

WOMEN'S RIGHTS AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH $1,520,000

A. POLICY ANALYSIS AND ADVOCACY TO PROMOTE WOMEN'S RIGHTS & REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH IN THE UNITED STATES

Legal Voice ($50,000) For its Alliance of State-based Women's Law and Policy Centers, which together seek to strengthen their collective advocacy capacity and step-up pursuit of pro-active legal and policy strategies to advance women's rights, LGBT rights and reproductive justice in the states. www.legalvoice.org

National Women's Law Center ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to remove barriers to reproductive health care, foster economic security, and promote tax and budget fairness to help women and their families lead more economically secure and fulfilled lives. www.nwlc.org

Reproductive Health Technologies Project ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to advance the ability of every woman to achieve full reproductive freedom with access to the safest, most effective, and preferred methods for controlling her fertility and protecting her health. www.rhtp.org

RH Reality Check ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to (a) foster evidence-based coverage in the online, broadcast, and print media of sexual and reproductive rights, health and justice issues; (b) provide rapid response to distortions of these issues by the far right; (c) influence policy debates by ensuring accurate and unbiased reporting on politics, policy and outcomes; and (d) offer a platform through which members of the broader reproductive and sexual health communities can share ideas. www.rhrealitycheck.org

University of California, Berkley School of Law ($40,000) For the Center for Reproductive Rights and Justice, which serves as a resource, liaison and partner to reproductive rights and justice groups throughout the country and seeks to realize reproductive rights and advance reproductive justice by furthering scholarship, bolstering advocacy efforts and influencing legal and social science discourse through innovative research, teaching and convenings. www.reprojustice.berkeley.edu

B. NEW VOICES AND NEW LEADERS FOR REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

Forward Together ($75,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes reproductive justice through local and national organizing, leadership development, alliance building and education. www.forwardtogether.org

Hampshire College ($20,000) For CLPP's Reproductive Rights Activist Service Corps, a summer internship program that provides undergraduate students with work experiences in advocacy, organizing, research and direct service through full-time, paid internships at reproductive justice and allied organizations. www.clpp.hampshire.edu

Law Students for Reproductive Justice ($200,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which seeks to train and mobilize law students and new lawyers across the country to foster legal expertise and support the realization of reproductive justice ($50,000); and for (b) LSRJ's Reproductive Justice Fellowship Program, which provides entry points for new lawyers from diverse backgrounds into the field of reproductive rights and justice while providing much-needed technical legal capacity to reproductive justice organizations ($200,000). www.lsrj.org

Ms. Foundation for Women ($60,000) For its capacity building support to reproductive justice organizations ($20,000) and; spur its Economic Justice and Reproductive Justice grantees to jointly address cross-movement issues ($40,000). www.forwomen.org

National Gay and Lesbian Task Force ($25,000) For its project advance intersectional work between the LGBTQ Movement and the Reproductive Justice Movement. www.thetaskforce.org

National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to ensure the human rights to reproductive health, dignity and justice for Latinas, their families and communities. www.latinainstitute.org

National Network of Abortion Funds ($125,000) For general support of this organization, which provides funding, building collective power, develops new leaders and engages in advocacy at the state and national levels to increase access to abortion and full reproductive health care for women who face the greatest barriers: low-income women, women of color, immigrant women, and young women. www.nnaf.org

Neo Philanthropy ($100,000) For the In Our Own Voice: National Black Women's Reproductive Health Agenda for its project to develop and disseminate a report on the state of black women and reproductive justice ($30,000); and to build the capacity of its state partners ($70,000). www.theneodifference.org and www.blackrj.org

SisterSong ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which is a key reproductive justice thought leader, convener, trainer, facilitator and organizer. www.sistersong.net

SisterLove ($5,000) For its WomenNOW! 2016 Summit in South Africa, which focuses on the intersection of HIV, Sexual and Reproductive Health and Justice with a specific focus on women of African descent.

The Religious Institute ($20,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes a progressive religious approach to public policy related to sex and sexuality; provides sexuality training and education for future religious leaders; and creates resources on sexuality and related issues for denominations, clergy, and faith communities, advocates for sexual health, morality, and justice in America's religious communities and in society at large. www.religioustheology.org

Tides Center ($80,000) For its National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum (NAPAWF) project, which seeks to build a movement of Asian and Pacific Islander women and girls in the U.S. to advance social justice and human rights ($70,000); and for its executive transition fund ($10,000). www.napawf.org

URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender Equity ($70,000) For general support of this organization, which develops, mobilizes and provides ongoing support to the next generation of reproductive justice leaders by establishing and supporting activist chapters on college campuses and providing training, field mobilization and national leadership for a youth-driven agenda. www.urge.org

C. POPULATION, HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICE

Catholics for Choice ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to shape and advance sexual and reproductive ethics that are based on justice, reflect a commitment to women's well-being, and respect and affirm the capacity of women and men to make moral decisions about their lives. www.catholicsforchoice.org

Center for Health and Gender Equity (CHANGE) ($75,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes sexual and reproductive health and rights as a means to achieve gender equality and empowerment of all women and girl by shaping public discourse, elevating women's voices, and influencing the United States Government. www.genderhealth.org

Global Justice Center ($25,000) For general support of this organization, that uses international human rights law to promote women's equality by engaging in advocacy targeting national governments and the UN, and by calling for reform of US foreign policy that undermines women's reproductive rights. www.globaljusticecenter.net

Universities Allied for Essential Medicines (UAEM) ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which organizes students to promote access to medicines for people in developing countries by changing university patenting and licensing norms and practices; encouraging development of treatments for neglected diseases that disproportionately affect the poor; and empowering its members to respond to the access and innovation crisis. www.uaem.org

D. WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS

Urgent Action Fund for Women's Human Rights ($20,000) For general support of this organization, a rapid response fund that replies to emergency funding requests within 72 hours and supports human rights defenders as they create a culture of justice, equality and peace. www.urgentactionfund.org

E. PROMOTING THE RIGHTS OF IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE WOMEN

Tahirih Justice Center ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which protects women and girls who refuse to be victims of violence through advocacy in the courts, Congress, and communities. www.tahirih.org

University of California Hastings College of Law ($60,000) For its Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, which works to advance the rights of women and children through legal advocacy and support for asylum seekers; provides legal expertise and training; policy development, research and in-country fact-finding.
www.cgrs.uchastings.edu

Women's Link Worldwide ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which is uses the power of the law to promote social change that advances the rights of women and girls, especially those facing multiple inequalities and addresses the interconnectedness of women's human rights, reproductive rights, gender discrimination, and gender based violence. www.womenslinkworldwide.org

Women's Refugee Commission ($65,000) For its Migrant Rights and Justice Program, which promotes reforms in U.S. law, policy and practice to ensure human rights protections for women, children, and families who are fleeing persecution and seeking asylum. www.womensrefugeecommission.org

HUMAN RIGHTS $1,902,000

ActionAid International USA ($50,000) For its Protecting Land & Housing Rights Campaign in Haiti, which will enable ActionAid and its partner organization Je Nan Je to continue to educate smallholder farmers, especially women, about the decision making processes that impact their land tenure rights and to train and organize them to defend and improve farmers' land tenure rights. www.actionaidusa.org

Alliance for Justice ($53,500) For general support of this organization, which provides non-profit organizations with the training and education they need to effectively advocate for public policies that benefit their constituencies and advance social justice, and supports a fair and just judiciary system with broad citizen access to the courts. www.allianceforjustice.org

As You Sow ($30,000) For its Responsible Sourcing Network Project, which produces tools and reports that shine a spotlight on and promote accountability for human rights abuses-human trafficking, forced labor, and rape-embedded in the manufacture of clothes and electronics. www.asyousow.org

Center for Economic and Policy Research (CEPR) ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which conducts research and public education; informs policymakers, the media and the general public regarding economic issues and fosters a more balanced debate on both domestic and international issues. www.cepr.net

Center for Victims of Torture ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which heals the wounds of torture on individuals, their families and their communities by providing rehabilitative care for survivors in the U.S., Africa and the Middle East; building capacity among human rights activists and smaller torture rehabilitation centers in 22 U.S. states and nine countries; and nonpartisan advocacy to end the use of torture and advance human rights. www.cvt.org

The Fund for Global Human Rights ($894,000) For general support of this organization, which works to secure basic freedoms worldwide by funding effective frontline human rights organizations and by building a strong effective human rights community worldwide ($819,000); for Videre, which empowers civil society organizations with information and security training, thereby strengthening their capacity to promote and protect human rights and democracy ($75,000).

www.globalhumanrights.org

Human Rights First ($350,000) For its a New Line in Safety and Freedom: Helping Vulnerable Refugees Gain Asylum from Persecution Project, which works to expand access to legal counsel for asylum seekers and reform the U.S. immigration system.

www.humanrightsfirst.org

International Labor Rights Forum ($98,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which strengthens grassroots workers' organizations and helps actualize their demands for legal reforms and corporate accountability policies that secure worker rights and eliminate child and forced labor from global supply chains ($75,000); (b) for its in-kind contribution for base rent and operating expense ($23,000).

www.laborrights.org

Latin America Working Group Education Fund (LAWGEF) ($45,000) For general support of this organization, a coalition of 60 religious, human rights, grassroots, foreign policy, research, peace and development organizations which works to develop a more peaceful, just and rights-promoting U.S. policy towards Latin America.

www.lawg.org

Mississippi Center for Justice ($4,000) For general support of this organization, which works to advance racial and economic justice. www.mscenterforjustice.org

Neo Philanthropy ($10,000) For its Charity and Security Network Project, which works to protect civil society's ability to carry out peacebuilding, humanitarian aid, human rights and development work without being constrained by counterterrorism laws and policies. www.foreffectivegov.org

Public Citizen Foundation ($20,000) For its Global Trade Watch program, which has two core goals: halting expansion of corporate-led globalization as implemented by the status quo model of trade and investment agreements, and fighting for more democratic, environmentally sustainable, and socially just alternatives.

www.citizen.org/trade

Refugees International ($60,000) For general support of this organization, which calls attention to the plight and needs of the world's 65 million stateless people, displaced people, and refugees; advocates for adequate resources and policies to assist them; and monitors and guides the response by providing analyses of conditions in crisis situations and proposing pragmatic solutions for improvement.

www.refugeesinternational.org

Refuge Point ($30,000) For its Urban Refugee Stabilization Program in Nairobi, which provides comprehensive, life-stabilizing interventions to the most vulnerable refugees while simultaneously working with them to identify long-term solutions.

www.refugepoint.org

T'ruah: The Rabbinic Call for Human Rights ($20,000) For general support of this organization, which trains and supports rabbinic students to be human rights leaders, mobilizes rabbis and their communities to pursue human rights for Israelis and Palestinians, end slavery and trafficking in the U.S. and to transform systems of mass incarceration in this country. www.truah.org

Urban Justice Center ($103,500) For its Iraqi Refugee Assistance Project, which provides direct legal aid to refugees, advocates for a more fair and effective refugee processing system, and provides clinical legal education for law students. www.refugeerights.org

Washington Office on Latin America (WOLA) ($49,000) For general support of this organization, a research and advocacy organization that focused on promoting justice and human rights and dignity. www.wola.org

RELIEF $90,000

ActionAid USA ($20,000) For its relief work in Haiti in response to Hurricane Matthew.
www.actionaidusa.org

American Near East Refugee Aid ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which advances the well-being of people through educational, economic, health and humanitarian aid programs in the West Bank, Gaza, Lebanon and Jordan through partnerships with local groups and communities. www.amera.org

Doctors Without Borders USA/Medecins Sans Frontieres ($30,000) For its Emergency Relief Fund, which allows MSF to launch an immediate response to neglected and unanticipated emergencies, without having to wait for donations and grants to arrive. www.doctorswithoutborders.org

Syria Relief and Development ($15,000) For general support of this organization that implements humanitarian programs in Syria and the surrounding region.
www.syriareliefinddevelopment.org

OTHER $55,750

Appleseed ($3,000) For general support of this organization, which works to break down barriers to equal opportunity.

Alonzo King Lines Ballet ($17,000) For general support of this organization, which nurtures dynamic artistry and the development of authentic, creative expression in dance, through collaboration, performance, and education. www.linesballet.org

Brandis University ($2,000) For its Eli J. Segal Citizen Leadership program, which builds a new generations of citizen leaders to advance social justice and strengthen our democracy. www.segal.brandeis.edu

Dale City Track Club ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which offers youth a positive environment that is fun, competitive, social, and informative about the sport of track and field.

Integrated Refugee & Immigrant Services ($3,000) For general support of this organization, which enables refugees and other displaced people to establish new lives, regain hope, and contribute to communities. www.irisct.org

Lifeline Partnership ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which provides a supportive, nurturing environment for people with developmental disabilities to grow spiritually and socially.

Pacific Environment and Resource Center ($3,000) For general support of this organization, which works to protect the living environment of the Pacific Rim. www.pacificenvironment.org

Planned Parenthood Gulf Coast, ($2,000) For its New Orleans Health Center.

The Advocacy Center of Louisiana ($2,000) For general support of this organization, which protects, empowers, and advocates for the human and legal rights of people with disabilities and seniors living in Louisiana. www.advocacyla.org

Smithsonian Institution National Museum of African Art ($6,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to stimulate a dialogue about race and help to foster a spirit of reconciliation and healing. www.africa.si.edu

Super Leaders ($2,000) For general support of this organization, which works to help youth develop leadership skills. www.super-leaders.com

Temple Shalom ($750) For its Open Your Eyes Fund for the Arts program.

The Historymakers ($5,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to preserve and make widely accessible the untold personal stories of both well-known and unsung African Americans.