

Interim 2019 Website List $5,258,000

ISRAEL $1,705,000

A. NEW ISRAEL FUND (NIF)

www.nif.org

Building Civil Society/Social and Economic Justice

For general support of this organization, which advances democracy and equality in Israel through grantmaking, programs and public advocacy, and builds awareness and worldwide support for these efforts. ($245,000)

For its emergency grants pool, which supports urgent needs in the field as they emerge over the course of the year. ($65,000)

For its Public Advocacy program, which defends democratic values and institutions in the public sphere against attack by building a proactive and positive public outreach and awareness as well as by strengthening the base of support for democracy and progressive civil society. ($90,000)

For its Development Operations, for its work strengthening the capacity of NIF. ($100,000)

For Zazim, a digital platform that organizes and engage Israelis in progressive causes. ($45,000)

For The Whistle, a project challenging bias and misinformation in the media through fact-checking. ($40,000)

For the Association for Civil Rights in Israel (ACRI), NIF's flagship grantee and Israel leading human and civil rights organization. ($195,000)

For Bimkom: Planners for Planning Rights, for its efforts to bring about system-wide change in planning policies and practices affecting the lives of Palestinian Israel, Bedouin, and residents of East Jerusalem and Area C of the West Bank. ($20,000)

B'tselem, for its works to expose the illegalities of the occupation and to promote accountability and respect for human rights in the occupied Palestinian territories. ($60,000)

For Breaking the Silence (BTS), for increasing Israeli public awareness of the occupation, publicizing the voices of soldiers who served or are serving in the occupied territories. ($30,000)

For the Hotline for Refugees and Migrant Workers to safeguard the rights of asylum seekers. ($50,000)

Freedom of Expression initiative, which aims to stem the trend of restricting freedom of protest and to hold authorities accountable for protecting freedom of speech and protest. ($40,000)

Human Rights Defenders Funders to cover the cost of legal representation for human rights defenders subject to legal proceedings due to their human rights activities. ($35,000)

Equal Rights and Opportunities for Palestinian Citizens of Israel

The Arab Center for Alternative Planning, which addresses the profound housing crisis and support sustainable development in the Arab community. ($50,000)

For Sikkuy, which works towards the implementation of fully equality on all levels between the Palestinian Arab and Jewish citizens of Israel. ($50,000)

For Palestinian Society Program, which provides grants to organizations working to advance planning, land and housing rights, and the status of women. ($100,000)

For Shatil's Shared Society Program, which builds the capacity of organizations and emerging leaders who bring new energy to the field, while convening and networking shared society actors for greater impact and systemic change. ($25,000)

Empowering and Improving Living Conditions for Ethiopian Immigrants

Fidel for its work integrating Ethiopian-Israelis in educational and social programs to improve their status in Israeli society. ($70,000)

The Israel Center for Educational Innovation (ICEI) to raise literacy achievements in schools with concentrations of Ethiopian and other disadvantaged students. ($395,000)

ECONOMIC JUSTICE $1,062,500

NATIONAL PROGRAMS

PUBLIC POLICY

Borealis Philanthropy ($50,000) For its capacity-building work with the Black-led Movement Fund, which embraces grassroots organizing as a core strategy to educate and mobilize people to address state violence and economic injustice in Black communities. www.borealisphilanthropy.org

Change Elemental ($15,000) For its Karl Mathiasen Equity and Innovation Fund, a philanthropic fund that subsidizes networks, organizations, and leaders that could not otherwise afford coaching and consulting engagements.

Common Counsel Foundation ($25,000) For its Neighborhood Funders Group Amplify Fund, which is a national pooled fund to support equitable community development.

Ella Baker Center for Human Rights ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which works to advance racial and economic justice to ensure dignity and opportunity for low-income people and people of color. www.ellabakercenter.org

Institute for Policy Studies ($75,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which combines research, analysis, information and advocacy for social change ($45,000); and (b) for its Black Worker Initiative, which works to improve wages and working conditions for Black workers, with a special emphasis on the southern US ($30,000). www.ips-dc.org

Leadership Conference Education Fund ($30,000) For general support of this organization, which provides research, education, and communications regarding the need for national public policy that provides opportunity and justice for all. www.civilrights.org

National Coalition on Black Civic Participation ($125,000) For general support of this organization that champions just and equitable public policy in the areas of economic security, health and wellness and education on behalf of Black women and girls ($75,000); and for its Black Women's Roundtable state affiliates, which focus on expanding its civic engagement, organizing and leadership development work at the state level, with a special emphasis on its southern affiliates($50,000. www.ncbcp.org

National Partnership for Women and Families ($80,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes public policies and business practices that expand opportunities for women and improve the well-being of U.S. families. www.nationalpartnership.org

Race Forward ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which works for racial justice. www.raceforward.org

Tides Center ($50,000) For its Rights4Girls Project, which works against gender-based violence and trafficking of girls in the United States. www.rights4girls.org

REGIONAL PROGRAMS

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA PUBLIC POLICY

DC Fiscal Policy Institute ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which analyzes tax and budget issues in the District of Columbia, with an emphasis on how these decisions affect low-and moderate-income residents. www.dcfpi.org

DC Alliance of Youth Advocates ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that all DC youth have access to high-quality and affordable development opportunities. www.dc-aya.org

DC Jobs With Justice ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which dedicates to protecting the rights of working people and supporting community struggles to build a more just city. www.dcjwj.org

Food Research and Action Center (FRAC) ($25,000) For its DC Hunger Solutions project, which works to ensure that federal nutrition programs, including SNAP (food stamps) and key child nutrition programs are more readily accessible in the District. www.dchunger.org

Many Languages, One Voice (MLOV) ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which fosters leadership and facilitates community-led initiatives to increase the meaningful inclusion of immigrants in DC who do not speak English as their primary language. www.mlovdc.org

Social Good Fund ($55,000) For its DC Fair Budget Coalition, comprised of more than 80 organizations and concerned citizens engages in organizing and public policy on economic justice issues and meeting the human needs of District residents ($50,000); and for its transportation assistance to low-income residents participating in its Constituent Leadership Program ($5,000). www.fairbudget.org

Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights ($30,000) For its Worker Justice Project, which provides legal assistance to individuals and communities who experience violations of their civil rights in the Washington, DC region. www.washlaw.org

Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless (WLCH) ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which protects the rights of the homeless and other low-income populations in the DC through a combination of direct representation, class action litigation, public policy work, and community outreach and organizing. www.legalclinic.org

HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Coalition for Nonprofit Housing and Economic Development ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which advocates for increased investments in affordable housing for low and moderate-income District residents. www.cnhed.org

Empower DC ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which seeks to enhance and strengthen self-advocacy efforts to improve the quality of life for low- and moderate-income people in the District, specifically to preserve and create affordable housing and encourage civic engagement. www.empowerdc.org

Organizing Neighborhood Equity, DC (ONE DC) ($50,000) For general support of this organization, which works to create and preserve racial and economic equity in the District of Columbia. www.onedconline.org

MARYLAND PUBLIC POLICY

Progressive Maryland Education Fund ($15,000) For its work to educate workers and policymakers on the benefits of raising the statewide minimum wage to $15 per hour.

VIRGINIA PUBLIC POLICY

Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy ($25,000) For its Paid Sick Days Campaign, a statewide earned sick days policy in Virginia.

www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org

New Virginia Majority Education Fund ($30,000) For general support of this organization, which builds a broad base of involved residents from immigrants, people of color, and youth to play and active roles in their community.

www.vnm-educationfund.org

OTHER

Greater Washington Community Foundation ($2,500) For its Black Philanthropic Alliance (BPA), which works to increase the presence and leadership of Black professionals in philanthropy.

EDUCATION $1,491,000

America Achieves $50,000 For general support of this organization, which equips youth and early career adults from all backgrounds for economic and life opportunities with goods jobs and careers in a rapidly changing economy. www.americaachieves.org

Book Trust ($20,000) For its partnership with the New York City Department of Education, which provides low-income families to choose and own books, cultivating literacy skills and a life-long love of reading. www.booktrust.org

Chalkbeat ($100,000) For general support of this organization, which provides deep local coverage of education policy and practice that informs decisions and actions, leading to better outcomes for children. www.chalkbeat.org

CityBridge ($50,000) For general support of this organization, an early stage incubator for public education, identifying the people, new ideas, and school models that will drive the next wave of results for students. www.citybridge.org

College Track ($100,000) For (a) general support of this organization, which empowers low-income, first-generation college students to graduate college ($50,000); and (b) for its Denver program, which works with at-risk students from underserved communities in Southwest Denver to graduate from college ($25,000); and its Washington, DC program ($25,000). www.collegetrack.org

Eagle Hill School ($200,000) For general support of this organization, which educates students identified with learning disabilities by providing an intimate and encouraging community that honors the individual, values learning diversity, and fosters personal and social growth. www.eaglehill.school

Education Reform Now ($100,000) For general support of this organization, that promotes social welfare dedicated to creating an America in which every child, regardless of class or race, has the social and economic opportunities afforded by an excellent public education. www.educationreformnow.org

Gillen Brewer School ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which provides young children classified as having developmental, language, learning, health-related and emotional disabilities with an intensive 12-month school program that includes an academic curriculum, speech and occupational therapy, play therapy/counseling, music, art, science, technology and a sports and fitness program. www.gillenbrewer.com

iMentor ($100,000), For general support of this organization, which builds mentoring relationships that empower first-generation students from low-income communities to graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their highest ambitions. www.imentor.org

International Documentary Association ($25,000) For its Loudspeaker Films' The Oakland Promise project a feature-length documentary about educational equity and opportunity in America. www.documentary.org

J Street Education ($7,500) For Peter Beinart's participation in the J Street Education Fund's Speaker Tours program to education key audiences on the pro-Israel, pro-peace approach to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Narrative 4, Inc. ($255,000), For general support of this organization, which works with education organizations in the United States, Israel, South Africa, Mexico, the UK and Ireland to integrate empathy and social change through story exchange. www.narrative4.com

New Classrooms Innovation Partners ($200,000) For general support of this organization, which aims to be the national leader in Next Generation Learning through its flagship product, Teach to One: Math, which creates a customized and dynamic curriculum for each student every day. www.newclassrooms.org

Promise Project ($3,500) For its 2019 Beautiful Promise's gala.

Robin Hood Foundation ($60,000) For its Early Learning Fund program, which engages low-income parents and family daycare providers with the ultimate goal of reducing the developmental gap between rich and poor children ($50,000) and general support ($10,000). www.robinhood.org

Soundview Preparatory School ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which provides a college-preparatory education in supportive environment that requires rigorous application to academic, instills respects for ethical values, and fosters self-confidence by making each student feel recognized and valued.

www.soundviewprep.org

Teach for All ($125,000) For general support of this organization, which provides its partners with a platform to share insights and best practices in order to adapt promising solutions to their local contexts more quickly and effectively. www.teachforall.com

The Brearley School ($25,000) For support of its financial aid for minority students. www.brearley.org

Thorn ($10,000) For general support of this organization, which works to address the sexual exploitation of children. www.thorn.org

WOMEN'S RIGHTS AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH $298,500

NEW VOICES AND NEW LEADERS FOR REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

DC Abortion Fund ($7,500) For general support of this organization, an all-volunteer, non-profit organization that makes grants and no-interest loans to women and girls in the DC region who cannot afford the full cost of an abortion. www.dcabortionfund.org

Hand Over Fist Foundation ($15,000) For its Interfaith Voices for Reproductive Justice project, which seeks to educate, engage and organize people of faith at the intersection of faith and reproductive justice, bridging the gap between faith and secular activists.

National Gay and Lesbian Task Force ($15,000) For its Organizing Campaigns Technology Upgrades, which needs to purchase new software and tablets to launch its campaigns this summer. www.thetaskforce.org

National Network of Abortion Funds ($40,000) For general support of this organization, which provides funding, develops new leaders and engages in advocacy at the state and national levels to increase access to abortion and full reproductive health care for women who face the greatest barriers: low-income women, women of color, immigrant women, and young women. www.nnaf.org

In Our Own Voice: National Black Women's Reproductive Justice Agenda ($80,000) For its grassroots voter education project with its local policy partners which focus on educating Black women voters on reproductive justice issues, identifying potential new voters and turning voters into activists. www.blackrj.org

Sister Song ($25,000) For general support of this organization, which fill the need for a national reproductive justice (RJ) movement led by and focused on women of color and their communities. www.sistersong.net

The Religious Institute ($20,000) For general support of this organization, which promotes a progressive religious approach to public policy related to sex and sexuality; provides sexuality training and education for future religious leaders; and creates resources on sexuality and related issues for denominations, clergy, and faith communities. www.religioustheology.org

National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum ($15,000) For general support of this organization, which is building a movement of Asian and Pacific Islander women and girls in the U.S. to advance social justice and human rights. www.napawf.org

URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender Equity ($15,000) For its civic engagement project. www.urge.org

POPULATION, HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICE

Universities Allied for Essential Medicines (UAEM) ($20,000) For general support of this organization, which organizes students to promote access to medicines for people in developing countries by changing university patenting and licensing norms and practices; encouraging development of treatments for neglected diseases that disproportionately affect the poor; and empowering its members to respond to the access and innovation crisis. www.uaem.org

WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS

Urgent Action Fund for Women's Human Rights ($20,000) For general support of this organization, a rapid response fund that replies to emergency funding requests within 72 hours and supports female human rights defenders as they create a culture of justice, equality and peace. www.urgentactionfund.org

PROMOTING THE RIGHTS OF IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE WOMEN

University of California Hastings College of Law ($25,000) For its Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, which works to advance the rights of women and children through legal advocacy and support for asylum seekers; provides legal expertise and training; policy development, research and in-country fact-finding.

www.cgrs.uchastings.edu

Women's Refugee Commission) ($1,000) For general support of this organization, which works to advocate for the rights and protection of women, children, and youth fleeing violence and persecution. www.womensrefugeecommission.org

HUMAN RIGHTS $676,000

Alliance for Justice ($90,000) For general support of this organization, which provides non-profit organizations with the training and education they need to effectively advocate for public policies that benefit their constituencies and advance social justice, and works for a fair and just judiciary system with broad citizen access to the courts. www.allianceforjustice.org

Center for Victims of Torture ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which provides rehabilitative care for survivors of torture and to advocates end torture worldwide. www.cvt.org

The Fund for Global Human Rights ($300,000) For general support of this organization, which works to secure basic freedoms worldwide by funding effective frontline human rights organizations and by building a strong effective human rights community worldwide. www.globalhumanrights.org

Hidden Water Inc. ($1,000) For general support of this organization, is a restorative justice approach to breaking the cycle of childhood sexual abuse and transforming harm into shared healing. www.hiddenwaternyc.org

Human Rights First ($60,000) For its Refugee Representation Project, which works with pro bono attorneys to expand access to legal services for asylum seekers and other vulnerable immigrants, and advocates for fair and humane national asylum laws and policies. www.humanrightsfirst.org

International Labor Rights Forum ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which builds transnational coalitions to strengthen both laws and corporate commitments protecting workers' rights throughout global supply chains.

www.laborights.org

Latin America Working Group Education Fund (LAWGEF) ($20,000) For general support of this organization, a coalition of 60 religious, human rights, grassroots, foreign policy, research, peace and development organizations which works to develop a more peaceful, just and rights-promoting U.S. policy towards Latin America.

www.lawg.org

Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington ($15,000) For general support of this organization, which provides comprehensive reproductive health services.

www.ppmw.org

Refugees International ($35,000) For general support of this organization, which advocates on behalf of refugees and internally displaced people worldwide.

www.refugeesinternational.org

Urban Justice Center ($50,000) For its International Refugee Assistance Project, which provides direct legal aid to refugees, advocates for a more fair and effective refugee processing system, and provides clinical legal education for law students.

www.refugeerights.org

Washington Office on Latin America (WOLA) ($35,000) For general support of this organization, a research and advocacy organization that focuses on promoting justice and human rights and dignity in Latin America. www.wola.org

RELIEF $25,000

American Near East Refugee Aid ($10,000) For general support of this organization, which operates health, education and economic development programs for refugees and marginalized communities in Gaza, the West Bank and Lebanon; it also provides humanitarian and emergency relief in times of crisis. www.anera.org

Doctors Without Borders USA/Medecins Sans Frontieres ($15,000) For its Emergency Relief Fund, which allows the organization to launch an immediate response to neglected and unanticipated emergencies, without having to wait for donations and grants to arrive. www.doctorswithoutborders.org